Description

Calm Sea

The pleasure of natural relief after meals, like the calm sea of Ischia

Your lightness tastes like herbs.
Fennel, anise, and cumin come together in a digestive infusion that helps relieve stomach pressure, relaxes, and provides immediate, natural well-being.

Perfect for:

Restoring balance after a heavy lunch or dinner

Enjoying a pause that lightens and soothes

Preparing for a peaceful evening with a lighter body and mind

Among houses smiling at the sea and the silhouette of the Fungo rock, every cup brings a sense of full and serene life.

What makes our herbal teas special:

High-quality ingredients, carefully selected

Seeds, berries, peels, and whole leaves clearly visible in our pyramid bags — a sign of a natural, non-powdered product

Pyramid filters made from 100% recyclable material derived from sugarcane fiber. The large size allows ingredients to fully open during infusion, releasing their full aroma, color, and flavor

Colorful packaging: Each tea is packed in a resealable kraft pouch with a zip-lock designed to best preserve aroma and freshness. The packaging is enriched with a hand-drawn illustration inspired by the colors and atmosphere of the Mediterranean — an artistic touch making each package unique and recognizable

Inside, you'll find 12 pyramid tea bags that preserve all the fragrance and beauty of the natural ingredients

Preparation: Steep for 5–10 minutes
Temperature: 90°C–95°C (194°F–203°F)
